Rape story made up

A TEENAGER who claimed she had been raped in Rugby has admitted she made the story up.

The 18-year-old told police she had been pounced on from behind and pushed to the floor in a vicious attack.

She said she was raped in an alleyway near St Andrew's Church, close to Little Church Street, on Sunday October 29 at about 2.30am after leaving the Walkabout bar.

Police had been hunting her alleged attacker but the woman, who is from Rugby, has now retracted her statement.
