REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2018/01765

I write in connection with your request for information received on 3rd April. I note you seek access to the following information:

During the period of 1 January 2015 to 1 January 2018
How many cases involving false rape complaints did you refer to the CPS for charging decisions (sometimes known as “Pre-Charge Advice”), under Perverting the Course of Justice or Wasting Police Time?
Please provide a breakdown by year and other suspects’ age, charge and where known, if the referral resulted in prosecution.
How much money has been spent by the police force in investigating these false allegations of rape?
Please provide a breakdown by year.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat. Following enquiries within the Force please see our response below.

Response – Bedfordshire Police has conducted a search of our systems and established we do not centrally record the information requested; therefore a manual search of all records would need to be carried out which would take in excess of 18 hours.

Unfortunately this means it is not possible to suggest a way to refine this request, as even if the date range were reduced it would still require hundreds of records to be manually checked.

We therefore, consider that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the appropriate limit of £450 as has been stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees & Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides that –
"Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit."

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Bedfordshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely

Geneen Bill
