DECATUR - Police have arrested a Moulton woman and charged her with making a false police report.

Officers say Yvonna Ann McDonald, 25, waved down an Alabama State Trooper on April 4 at the intersection of 2nd Avenue and East Moulton Street in Decatur.

The trooper called Decatur Police, and McDonald filed a report with them claiming she was raped.

McDonald was transported to Decatur General, where a sexual abuse nurse checked her for signs of rape.

The Decatur Police Violent Crimes Unit then began an investigation, that later revealed no rape had occurred.

Officers arrested McDonald later that morning.
