Macon police have determined a woman who told investigators she was raped early May 6 at a Gray Highway apartment complex made a false accusation.

During a Tuesday interview, detectives pointed out numerous inconsistencies in the woman’s statements and determined she had never visited the apartment complex where she alleged the rape occurred, according to a police news release.

The woman made threats to herself, and police notified local emergency personnel.

The woman was taken to a local hospital where she was admitted for evaluation and remains hospitalized, according to police.
