Thursday, March 15, 2012

News Brantford-Brant

Police investigate sexual assault

Expositor Staff

Saturday, January 28, 2012 12:00 AM EST

Brantford - On January 23rd 2012 shortly after 6 PM a female was walking home on Darling Street, when she was approached by two unidentified males, walking through Charles Ward Park. The males attacked the victim and sexually assaulted her in a secluded area of the park. The female was released after the assault, and the two suspects left the area.

The first male is described as being a white male in his mid twenties 6’2”-6’3”, bald head, clean shaven with a lip piercing and a stocky build. He was wearing jeans, boots, and a white and black hoodie that was zipped up the front with the hood pulled up.

The second male was described as being a white male in his mid twenties 5’10”-6’0” short buzzed blonde hair with a pointy face and dark clothing.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Dave Minutillo at 519-756-0113 extension 2266, or to call Brant-Brantford Crime Stoppers at 519-750-8477.

https://www.brantfordexpositor.ca/ArticleDisplay.aspx?e=345236
Brantford - A report of a sexual assault in Charles Ward Park on Jan. 23 was false and the case is now closed, a Brantford police spokesman said Monday.

An investigation into the report revealed the sexual assault did not take place, the spokesman said.

It had been alleged that woman was sexually assaulted by two men in a secluded area of the park after they had approached her on Darling Street.

http://www.brantfordexpositor.ca/2012/02/20/police-close-case-on-jan-23-sex-assault